

THE OBJECT Arboreum rug

Interior architect Thomas Griem has produced a rug collection in collaboration with Jacaranda. This design, Arboreum, was inspired by Japanese ukiyo-e paintings. Made from Tibetan wool and Chinese silk, it comes in two sizes, 200 x 300cm and 250 x 350cm (£3,560 and £5,200), with bespoke options available (tg-studio.co.uk).

TRADE SECRET

Quiirk

(quiirk.co.uk)

What's the story? A wide range of glassware, pottery, prints, textiles and furniture by UK artists, available through one easy to navigate e-boutique.

Hot pick? Adele Stanley's slip-cast porcelain designs in bright colours, from £16 for a small mug.

ON THE WISH LIST

Consulat armchair

New pieces from the French designer Christian Liaigre include this Consulat armchair, his version of a campaign chair, made with a tinted walnut frame, linen seat and leather armrests (£3,010; christian-liaigre.fr).

FOR THE GARDEN

Spun chair, £375,
Thomas Heatherwick
for Magis (scp.co.uk).

KITCHEN KIT

Stuben21 dining table

The Viennese design duo behind Stuben21 have developed a bespoke furniture collection they describe as "bling-free luxury". This solid wood and stainless-steel dining table, priced from £1,500, is made with sustainable materials (stuben21.com).

